"Faith Community is not your typical Lutheran Church!"

- † Worship-Centered: with a blend of old and new, we offer a unique worship style.
- † Bible-Centered: When it comes to our scripture readings and our sermons, worshipers are encouraged to follow along with their pew bibles as we "dig together" into God's Word.
- † Prayer-Centered: worshipers are encouraged to openly share their own prayer petitions. It is so inspiring to hear faithful prayers being lifted from worshipers of all ages, 3 to 93.
- † Visitor-Friendly: We encourage our worshipers to get involved! We welcome new faces and new ideas in all of the many ministries here at Faith!

Worship Services:
Saturday — 5:30 pm

The Celebration of Worship

7th Sunday after Pentecost

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.

After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran... We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a "blend" of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of "Word & Sacrament." Therefore, "God's Word" is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and sermon with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to "examine themselves" (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

Coming into God's Presence

Our lessons today give us insight into how we may come into God's presence. David, the psalmist, gives some pretty high standards: blameless; righteous; speaking the truth from the heart; no slander; not wronging ones neighbor; keeps an oath; lends money without interest! Abraham was just "being", saw the Lord, hurried to greet Him and was hospitable, inviting them in to share a meal. Martha too invited Jesus and his disciples into her home. Paul reminds us that we are presented holy in His sight as we continue in faith being servants to one another.

To our guests ...
Welcome!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

The mission Christ gave to all churches...

Devotion

Coming into God's Presence

Our lessons today give us insight into how we may come into God's presence. David, the psalmist, gives some pretty high standards: blameless; righteous; speaking the truth from the heart; no slander; not wronging ones neighbor; keeps an oath; lends money without interest! Abraham was just "being", saw the Lord, hurried to greet Him and was hospitable, inviting them in to share a meal. Martha too invited Jesus and his disciples into her home. Paul reminds us that we are presented holy in His sight as we continue in faith being servants to one another.

If we were to take a scale and measure ourselves by each of these measures, how would we do? How many of the qualities that David mentioned have we not kept just in the reading of his list? It is pretty difficult to even imagine ourselves "being" in a world that almost demands constant motion! Hospitality is pretty difficult for introverts who aren't really proud of the way we prepare a meal. Continuing in our faith is sometimes difficult when we think of all the things that need to be done in the next hour, day, week, or before school begins again. Then there is the last one...being a servant! Whoops - how am I ever going to be able to do that one...because, you know, I have my place in life!

The dawning of the sun - whether we see it our not, light comes to the day and we awake to His creation. God calls us into His presence every day! We are called to be different...displaying those traits David describes. After all, if God, through David, hadn't set the bar that high, we would not be challenged. What a joy it is to Invite God to come into our day - making Him integral to everything we do and allowing Him to encourage us in our faith. Being a servant, following Jesus' example. May God help us all to be His people serving His people and all of creation.

School supplies for kids in need

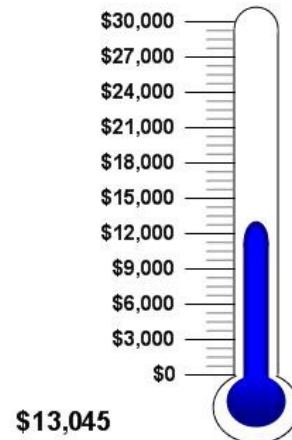

There are over 13,000 students in the St. Vrain Valley and Boulder Valley School Districts eligible for the Federal lunch assistance program, a common indicator of family poverty. Many of these children routinely start school without even the basic school supplies.

FCLC is participating in the community-wide backpack and school supply drive called Crayons to Calculators. Please consider helping local students in need by purchasing a few extra school supplies. Donations may be dropped off through August 8th in the collection bin located by the church office. A specific list of supplies by grades is available.

If you'd like to donate a gift of your time, volunteers are used in August to help sort supplies and pack the backpacks. For more information, please visit www.efsuv.org or call Lora Lawrence, Education Foundation Coordinator, at 720-652-8208. Thank you!

KidsHope needs prayer partners

KidsHope needs mentors.

Did you know that FCLC could mentor as many as 28 children at Sanborn Elementary here in Longmont. Yes that is more than twice as many as last year. There is a great need here! If you have one hour a week to mentor one child, please contact LaRae Schaff here at the church for an application. Do it now before the July 31st deadline. Another Option: Behind the scene of the mentor and the child is a prayer partner. We are short a few prayer partners for the mentors that have already signed up...Call LaRae and get connected.

We are excited with the July 6th preliminary launch of Church Community Builder (CCB), our new web-based church management and communication system

FAITHbook

Tip of the Week: Happy Thursday! By now you should have received an e-mail with your username and password to log-in to our new church management/communication system. To change your username and password to be more unique (and memorable!) follow these steps:

- 1) Log in with your current username and password.
- 2) Click the "My Profile" tab at the top of the page.
- 3) Click "Change Settings" on the right above where your picture will go (hint, hint)
- 4) Click "Login/Password" link on the left of the page.

Here you can change your login and password to whatever you want. IMPORTANT Check the "Send Email" box under the "Confirm Password" field. This way you will get a message with your changed information. I do not have access to your passwords, so if you can't remember it, e-mail me at tanja@fclc.org to send you a temporary password. Don't forget! This is now the main source of communication with the congregation. FCLCNews and Prayer-Chain will be run through here from now on, so don't delay in logging in and setting your personal username/password. While you're here, feel free to explore!

TONIGHT IS THE NIGHT—July 18, 7 PM

Legacy Quartet
Faith Community Lutheran Church
Sunday, July 18, at 7 pm

The Legacy Quartet - Norm Huxman, Steve Taylor, Chris Gaines, Mitch Rogge

The Legacy Quartet is known throughout the country and in several foreign countries as one of the premier Southern Gospel groups singing today. From its beginnings in 1981, Legacy Quartet has maintained its style in the Southern Gospel tradition. The unique harmony, the joy and spirit in which they sing, and the songs they have chosen with much variety, depth, and meaning, inspire audiences wherever they perform.

Their goal is that through their ministry of song, people will be uplifted, encouraged, entertained, and most importantly, through the work of the Holy Spirit, be brought to a decision to serve Christ.

It is an honor to have this internationally-known men's quartet inspire us and our community with their God-given talents and their message of the Gospel of Christ.

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.
We believe the Lord led you here. Please stop by our Welcome Center and sign our electronic guest book before you leave.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well-equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery. —Thank you.
